The Orquesta Sinfónica de Galicia announces its second conducting Masterclasses with Dima Slobodeniouk.

Dima Slobodeniouk and the Sinfonica de Galicia will organise the second week of conducting masterclasses that will take place from the 11th until the 14th of september 2018 in A Coruña. Those applicants (4 active and up to 4 listeners) selected will prepare works by Mozart, Beethoven, Mahler and Bartok.

Masterclasses are free of charge and open to applicants of any age or nationality. Aspirants have to send a video recording conducting a rehearsal or a concert of a maximum duration of 15 minutes by email to download or via Wetransfer to masterclass@sinfonicadegalicia.com before July 20th 2018.

All four aspirants and up to four listeners selected will have to cover the cost of travel and all expenses during their stay in La Coruña. They will conduct the Sinfónica de Galicia in a public concert on September 14th and the winner will be invited to conduct the OSG in the future.

During the classes with Dima and the OSG, aspirants will work on the first two movements of Mozart's Symphony n^o 41 and Beethoven's Symphony n. 3, as well as the Adagietto from Mahler's Symphony n.5 and Bartok's Rumanian Folk Dances. All work seasons will be open to public.

The selection committee will be formed by the music director Dima Slobodeniouk, general manager Andrés Lacasa and members of the OSG artistic committee.

All the communications with the applicants will be by mail via masterclass@sinfonicadegalicia.com and the final admitted list will be published on www.sinfonicadegalicia.com
